Looks like HCI is planning ahead. A good thing! I think they need to add someone to the warehouse.

What do you all think?

Subject: Positions

Eric,

We would like to activate the following positions to plan forward in the procurement of SME for the following:

Supply Tech X 4

Supply Room Manager X 4

Based on the possibility of 4 sites being conducted at one time this will give us time to procure these SME's to meet the future sites requirements
